Dear Ms Humphries,

AWARD OF INSETA PROVISIONAL SECONDARY ACCREDITATION

Recent quality assurance evaluations of your learning and delivery strategy, in line with SAQA's and the INSETA's guidelines and criteria for NQF providers refers.

In light of the Maharishi Invincibility Institute NPC's compliance to these quality assurance processes, we are pleased to inform you that the Maharishi Invincibility Institute NPC's award of secondary accreditation (provisional) has been extended up to the 31 December 2022.

This award is subject to the fulfilment of the following conditions:

- Compliance to prescribed requirements as outlined in the INSETA's accreditation and other quality assurance policies.
- No learner enrolments are permitted outside of the awarded accreditation period.
- Accreditation is also dependant on the currency of unit standards or qualifications that have been awarded to the provider. Should currently registered NQF qualifications expire or be replaced prior to the end date of the provider's accreditation cycle, the actual life of the expired qualification takes precedence over the provider's accreditation period.
- Accreditation scope as well as any extensions will depend upon successful delivery against the INSETA's policies and procedures and any conditions attaching specifically to this approval which may be stated separately.
- This accreditation does not automatically cover new unit standards or qualifications that may replace reviewed ones. Applications should be made separately to extend the provider's accreditation scope.
- This approval is also subject to, ongoing organisational monitoring and evaluation as well as the outcome of verification, against approved learning programme(s).
- The INSETA reserves the right to conduct a site visit at the Maharishi Invincibility Institute NPC's premises and or delivery site (s) at any stage of the stipulated accreditation period.
